Draft amendments to the Employees' State Insurance (General) Regulations 1950.

1. Regulation 11—Declaration by persons in employment on appointed day.

(i) In the said Regulation between the words "in the Declaration Form" and "and obtain" the words "including the Temporary Identification Certificate" shall be inserted.

(ii) The last sentence of the said Regulation viz., 'The temporary identification certificate duly completed shall thereafter be detached from the form and handed over to the employee', shall be deleted.

2. Regulation 12:—Declaration by persons engaged after the appointed day.

(i) In sub-regulation (1) of the said Regulation, between the words 'Declaration Form' and 'and obtain', the words "including the Temporary Identification Certificate" shall be inserted.

(ii) In sub-regulation (1) of the said Regulation, the last sentence viz., "The temporary identification certificate duly completed shall be detached from the form and handed over to the person after he has been taken into employment", shall be deleted.

3. Regulation 14:—Declaration Forms to be sent to appropriate Office.

In the said Regulation, between the words "Declaration Forms" and "prepared under", the words "without detaching the Temporary Identification Certificates" shall be inserted.

4. Regulation 15:—Allotment of Insurance Number:—

In the said Regulation, the last sentence i.e., "The Insurance Number shall be communicated to the employer and shall be entered by the employer on the Contribution Card of the person" shall be deleted and the following shall be substituted in its place:—

"The Temporary Identification Certificates with Insurance Numbers marked thereon shall be detached and returned to the employer along with one copy of Form 3. The employer shall deliver the Temporary Identification Certificate to the employee to whom it relates after obtaining his signature or thumb impression thereon. The Insurance Number allotted by the Regional Office to an employee and indicated in the copy of Form 3 returned to the employer, shall be entered by the employer on the contribution card of such employee".

5. For Regulation 17, the following Regulation shall be substituted, namely:—

"17. Identity Cards:—The appropriate Regional Office shall arrange to have an Identity Card prepared in Form 4 for each person in respect of whom an insurance number is allotted and shall send all such identity cards to the employer. Such employer shall if and when the employee has been in his service for 13 weeks, obtain the signature or thumb impression of the employee on the Identity Card and shall after making relevant entries thereon deliver the Identity Card to him. The employer shall obtain a receipt from the employee for the Identity Card. The Identity Card in respect of an employee who has left employment before 13 weeks shall not be given to him, but shall be returned to the appropriate Regional Office as soon as possible".

6. After Regulation 17, the following Regulations shall be added, namely:—

"17-A. Issue of a Certificate of Employment:—If an insured person happens to need medical care before the Temporary Identification Certificate is issued to him, the employer shall issue a certificate of employment in such form as may be specified by the Director General to such persons on demand. Such certificate shall also be issued on demand, if an insured person loses his Temporary Identification Certificate before the receipt of the Identity Card".

"17-B. Issue of Permanent Acceptance Card:—In areas where the Director General considers it appropriate, the appropriate Regional Office shall also supply a Permanent Acceptance Card for each employee in such form as the Director General may specify along with the Identity Card and this shall also be delivered to the employee. Permanent Acceptance Card for the employee who has left employment before 13 weeks shall not be given to him but returned to the appropriate Regional Office along with the Identity Cards as soon as possible".
